

European Land-Robot Trial 2006 (ELROB)
Team Application
Letter of Intent
Liability Statement

1. Team Application

_____, as Team Leader representing Team _____, certify that I as a official and legal representative of _____ assume complete responsibility for any and all activities that may take place during the entirety of the ELROB 2006 activities for our Team.

2. Letter of Intent

Herewith I confirm our commitment to participate in the event ELROB 2006.

3. Liability Statement

Herewith I agree to be responsible for, to hold harmless, and to indemnify the German Government, including the Ministry of Defence (MoD) and its employees, and those contractors and their employees acting on behalf of the German Government for the ELROB 2006. This agreement to hold harmless and indemnify shall be for any and all claims of liability whether by reason of injury or death of any person, or of damage to the property of the Team, or another, arising from, or connected to the participation in ELROB 2006.

If individual provisions of the present treaty should be ineffective or impracticable or become ineffective or impracticable after contract conclusion, then thereby the effectiveness of the contract in all other respects is not touched. The ineffective or impracticable provision parts will be replaced by those effective and feasible provisions whose effects come closest to the objectives, which the contracting parties pursued with the ineffective or impracticable provision. The preceding provisions apply accordingly for the case that the contract proves to be incomplete.

This signed and notarized certificate must be received by the ELROB office no later than 10:00 CET on 01.October 2005.
